THE DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy as at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

"The Big Gun of the Campaign" Spiked!

We allowed a correspondent of ours a few days ago to admit, what we did not believe to be true, that the State Convention and the people of the State, approved of the manner in which Gov. Holden had carried out President Johnson's reconstruction policy. We were surprised at the admission, and concluded to let it pass for what it was worth. But the continued immodesty of the Standard, and the friends of Gov. Holden, in emblazoning the resolution of the Convention, as the "big gun of the campaign," obliges us to spike that gun.

Let us look at the resolution:

RESOLVED BY THE DELEGATES OF THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA, IN CONVENTION ASSEMBLED, That the administration of ANDREW JOHNSON PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, has been eminently national and conservative, embracing every section of this republic; and that he is entitled to the gratitude of the people of this State for the manifestation of his purpose to secure to them, at as early a day as possible, the restoration of their political rights in the Union; and that W. W. HOLDEN, PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR, deserves our thanks for his zeal to the same end.

It is a well-known custom in all bodies, never to object to complimentary resolutions if they are at all bearable. Common courtesy demands this course. Individuals or officers must have rendered themselves very obnoxious to be the subjects of opposition in such cases.

There was not a man in the Convention who did not most heartily endorse that portion of the resolution relating to President Johnson, except perhaps a few of the ultra "straitest sect" men. But we deny that a majority of the Convention endorsed Gov. Holden's course. It is understood that the friends of Gov. Holden would not risk a separate resolution of endorsement from that of the President. They feared its fate, and hence submitted to a quasi endorsement, at the tail end of the resolution. And what does it amount to? Does the Convention endorse his policy in executing the trust confided to him? Not at all. It simply thanks him for his zeal in carrying out the President's purpose. We may approve a man's zeal, his pains taking in pursuing an end, even though we may disapprove his plan of doing it; which was really the sense of the Convention. If the resolution intended to praise the Governor, it is certainly "damning him with faint praise."

More to the Point--Let the People Beware.

It is the daily habit of the papers in the interest of Gov. Holden and many of his friends to claim, that he is the candidate of President Johnson—that he desires his election—that we must vote for Gov. Holden and go into the Union—or vote for Mr. Worth and stay out.

The evidence thickens upon us every day, that the reverse of all this is true.

Before we give the evidence, we feel called upon to put the people of North Carolina upon their guard, against bogus telegrams from Washington a few days before the election, announcing Gov. Holden to be the choice of the President. The desperation which the opponents of Mr. Worth are working themselves up to, will do any thing to effect their object. Let the people be on the alert.

We are authorized to state upon authority little less than that coming directly from the President himself, that "the Government will not in any way interfere with the people of North Carolina, in respect to their choice for Governor.—It is a matter entirely for the people, and any pretence that this or that candidate is to be elected on the demands of the Government, is without any authority whatever."

The government disclaims any intention of interference, and the Standard in giving publicity to other views, is doing wrong to the President and to Gov. Holden himself in the eyes of right thinking men.

Wm. Eaton Jr. Esq.

In the Standard of the 25th, it is in substance asserted that Mr. Eaton, one of the delegates in the Convention from Warren County, voted against the ordinance declaring the ordinance of secession to be null and void. A grosser misrepresentation has not appeared in that print. While Mr. Eaton preferred Mr. Ferebee's substitute, he nevertheless voted for the original ordinance on its final passage, as the journal will show. The Standard knew this and yet perpetrated the injustice to Mr. Eaton. It also charges Mr. Eaton with the love of secession, when it is well known that Mr. Eaton always denied the constitutional right of secession.

The Standard's Falsehoods.

As a matter of curiosity, we thought we would look over the columns of the Standard of the 26th inst., and mark its falsehoods—statements which have not a shadow of foundation.

1. The Worth faction "are determined that the war debt shall be paid."

2 "The plot has been deliberately and cunningly made, and the holders of the bonds and money of the banks are exerting all their influence to have it carried out by electing Mr. Worth."

Now here is a statement circumstantially and deliberately made. No gentleman would make such a statement unless he had probable evidence of its truth. If such a plot were on foot, Mr. Worth and the editor of the Sentinel would most likely know something about it. As neither of us have heard of such an idea, much less a plot, we pronounce the whole statement, a mean, low-bred fabrication from beginning to end.

3. "It is said that he (Mr Worth) caused a large amount of old North Carolina bonds belonging to the Sinking Fund of the State to be sold, and the war debt bonds substituted in their place."

The reader will see this falsehood refuted in Saturday's Sentinel. The foregoing fabrications are turned over and over and twisted in various forms in the Standard's leader of the 26th.

4. "The movement (Mr. Worth's nomination) originated in the Convention, by those hostile to the administration of President Johnson's reconstruction policy."

We believe that there was not a member of the Convention opposed to President Johnson's policy, unless Bryan of Wilkes, McDonald of Chatham and such like "strait sect" men were, who would if they could, inaugurate Brownlow's reign of terror in Tennessee, in this State. Certain it is none but sound conservative Union men urged Mr. Worth to run.

5. "Without any popular demonstration whatever, to Mr. Worth alone is due the credit of such excessive impressibility, as to yield to the seductive approaches of such politicians as Winston, and Ferebee, and Manly, and Howard, and Bragg, and Mordecai, et id omne genus."

The members of the Convention had sufficient evidence of the popular demonstration at home, in the declarations of the people that they would not vote for Gov. Holden. That Mr. Worth was approached by Judge Manly or Judge Howard, we believe is wholly untrue, and the assertion that Gov. Bragg or Mr. Mordecai did, is both malicious and false.

6. "The President refused to pardon him,"—Josiah Turner, Jr. "He cut numerous shines around the hotels," &c.

When we were a boy, a man lived in the same county who was so notorious a retailer of falsehoods, and yet always asserted them as facts, that it became a proverb, when any one told a whopper, the bystanders would say, "that is one of C.'s facts." As Dr. Powell seems to be the source of all the Standard's facts from Washington, we suppose we may set the above down as one of Dr. P.'s facts. Certain it is, that Mr Turner never opened his mouth to the President about his pardon, nor did the President refuse Mr. Turner, a pardon.

"His election (J. Turner) would do more than any thing else, except the election of Mr. Worth, to keep the State out of the Union. There is no doubt of this."

That is, the election of two of the most consistent Union men in the State would keep the State out of the Union! Bah!

8. "Every vote cast for Jo. Turner would be a vote to reflect on the President."

Tush! why the President is no mirror to reflect votes. Every vote cast for Mr. Turner would be a vote to sustain the President's liberal policy and a vote against the "straitest sect"

9. "The Sentinel continues to assert that President Johnson would pardon every body if Gov. Holden's influence did not prevent it."

We have not said so.

10. "The fact is, that the Sentinel's real opposition is at the national administration and its policy, but it seeks to manifest its clear destiny by striking down its real friends."

Is that one of "C's facts" or whose? There is no truth in it.

11. "Josiah Turner and Jonathan Worth, the leaders of secession and disunion in North Carolina."

The Standard has no shame. It blushes at nothing.

Gov. Holden's Record.

"But a few short months ago these inconsistent politicians who are now falsely attempting to represent Gov. Holden as an original secessionist, were denouncing him on account of his Unionism."—Standard.

The Standard makes a false charge when it labors to identify the former secessionists, as actively engaged in getting out opposition to Gov. Holden, or in compiling his record. All the parties concerned in bringing out Mr. Worth or in preparing "Facts for the People," were men who could show a better Union record than the Governor. Their compilations profess to come from the Standard, and they give dates. If their selections from the Standard are false, why does not the Standard point them out? If they have acted falsely or unfairly, it is in the power of the Standard to convict them of it palpably. Why does it not do it?

County Meeting.

About 25 or 30 persons, we learn, met at the Court House on Saturday last, and nominated a Holden ticket for Wake County, viz: Maj. Willie D. Jones for the Senate; Hon. Kenneth Rayner, A. F Page and R. K. Ferrell for the Commons. Whether the people of the County will allow such a meeting to select for them, remains to be seen. Maj. Jones and Mr. Rayner had previously declared themselves. Col. Faribault, we observe, is also announced, and we learn that B. F. Moore, Esq., has also announced himself for the Commons.

A Fresh Start.

The Convention has ordained that all the Provisional offices shall cease with the ending of the next Legislature. The term of all the magistrates appointed by Gov. Holden then expires.

Gov. Perry and Gov. Sharkey, whom the President compliments highly, did not remove any of the old magistrates who would take the oath.—Gov. Holden removed all except those of his own selection. Gov. Perry allowed the people of South Carolina to take the oath of amnesty before any one of the magistrates. Gov. Holden appointed a special board for that purpose and required it to be taken before two magistrates.—What had North Carolina done to require different treatment?

But now the Convention declares all the civil offices of the State vacated and those appointed by Gov. Holden also, after the next Legislature. We shall then take a fresh start with a new set of officers entire. We shall have a new Legislature, new magistrates, new sheriffs, new clerks, &c., new members of Congress—every thing fresh, and you know a new broom sweeps clean.

Why not have a new Governor? Why not Jonathan Worth, a man whom every body knows to be a statesman, a consistent, well-tried, faithful man, and a life-long Union man? Let the people answer at the polls.

A North Carolinian residing in Norfolk, writes thus:

"I am glad to see that that sterling old whig and true conservative, Jonathan Worth, has consented to be a candidate for civil governor of the good old North State. God grant that he may be triumphantly elected. His enemies say that Mr. Holden ought to be elected, because he will be more acceptable to the President. 'Tis all bosh. Mr. Worth's antecedents are too well known—too unquestionable to make him the object of suspicion or distrust with the President. I am yet to meet the first man from any of the eastern counties who will support Mr. Holden. They all say they want a man who can show a consistent record, and they have such a man in the person of Mr. Worth."

GRANVILLE.—The Standard claims Granville for Gov. Holden by almost a unanimous vote. A friend writing to us, says that Mr. Worth's majority in that County will be 500. We think both are mistaken.

WARREN.—The vote in Warren will be little over 600, owing to the large number of unpardoned persons in the county. A friend writes us, that Warren will give 600 majority for Mr. Worth.

Our information from the Cape Fear country and beyond is highly encouraging. Mr. Worth's vote in the counties south of the Cape Fear we are told will be very large.

Our Glorious President.

Let our readers look at the following and read it. Who can for a moment doubt the magnanimity of President Johnson? Why have not Gov. Graham, and others in the State been amnested? Whose fault is it?

The Georgia Convention---All Members to be Amnested.

Telegraph Correspondent of Cincinnatti Commercial.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Oct. 21.—Several of the members having been elected to the Georgia Convention, who were excluded from the amnesty, Governor Johnson wrote to the President, and received the following telegram:

"WASHINGTON, Oct. 18, 1865.

"Gov. J. Johnson—Your letter of the 7th was received. Send a list of the members elected to the Convention in order that pardons may be issued and the amnesty oath may be obtained by the members.

"W. HUNTER, Acting Secretary."

Thirty-four members are already elected who require pardon, and they are the ablest men elected.

"Mr. Turner who does the dirty work for Mr. Worth and Bro. Pell, has much to say about the 'Holden Record.'"—Standard.

Our neighbors have shown so little regard to propriety or truth in conducting the canvass, that when they call us Bro. Pell, we feel very much as we do, when some expelled member of the church comes staggering up to us in company, "drunk as a coot," and calls us 'Bro. Pell.'

Richmond Examiner.

This favorite Southern journal Mr. H. Rives Pollard proposes to revive at an early day. He designs making it one of the most popular journals of the South. Every effort will be made to entitle it to public patronage. We shall hail its re-appearance with pleasure. All letters and subscriptions must be addressed to Mr. Pollard at Richmond.

Fatal Accident.

We regret to learn that on Saturday morning last, while the freight train on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road was within a mile of Gaston, the engine exploded, killing the engineer, Mr. Charles B. Holleman, and the fireman, a colored man. The engine was torn in pieces and several cars destroyed. Mr. Holleman was a young man much esteemed by his friends.

Biblical Recorder.

We have received the first number of this journal since its resumption. It comes out in a new dress, and is decidedly the neatest paper in the State. The Recorder should receive the warmest support of the Baptists in the State. We are glad that the health of the editor, Rev. J. D. Hufham has improved, and we wish him much success.

The trains on the North Carolina Rail Road have been disturbed for a day or two by accidents to the machinery. The Company now has entire control of the Road from Goldsborough to Charlotte.

Hon. B. S. Gaither of Burke, is announced as a candidate in the seventh District. He endorses and will warmly support President Johnson's administration.

For the Sentinel.

"The Declaration of Independence."

The resolutions of Mr. Turner, by the above name, are stereotyped in the Standard, as plenary evidence of the rebellious spirit of their mover. "See how plain a tale shall put them down." That Josiah Turner, whose movements against revolution or secession, were during that session almost factious, should now be classed as a leader in the rebellion, is something of a marvel. Those who remember those exciting times, when he and Jonathan Worth and Dr Leach, Sharpe and Ramsey, Gen. Dockery and two or three others were nearly mobbed in their seats in the Senate, for their uncompromising and vehement hostility to every measure which worked to a disruption of the Union, will be not a little surprised at the queer position now assigned to that gentleman.

Our State was in actual revolution. Volunteers were rushing to the contest. The army was forming. The Forts were in the occupation of the North Carolinia soldiery. The Legislature had authorized Gov Ellis to call a Convention to carry out the State. The Convention had been called to meet on the 20th of May following. The doctrine of secession was to be put in practice, and Mr. Turner to head off this pestilent heresy, and to try the mettle of these wild secessionists, took the Bull by the Horns, and bravely determined to put the rebellion on its true ground—that of a revolution. He was for anticipating the action of the Convention, by his Declaration of Independence—in which secession peaceable or otherwise should have no place. He may have been a little wrong-headed in his mode of accomplishing a desirable end. This trial of the nerves of the secessionists, may have been a little hazardous, as it might be hereafter quoted as evidence of his own sentiments; but, Jo Turner is not easily scared when he sets his head in any direction. All who know the man and the pertinacity with which he pursues and persecutes what he deems heresy, will at once understand his tactics. They know perfectly—and so do that brace of interesting young gentlemen, who are said to edit the Standard, and so does the proprietor and sole owner of that very dignified impartial paper, that the above, and nothing else was the purpose of Mr. Turner in those resolutions.

But Jonathan Worth—the strongest Union man in North Carolina, then and now, has also grievously sinned because he voted against their postponement "until the meeting of the Convention." A simple enumeration of the names of the Senators voting, coupled with what every intelligent man in North Carolina knows of the sentiments about disunion and secession, or that time will furnish the key to the whole transactions.

Those who voted to postpone, are: Messrs. Avery, Brown, Bledsoe, Barringer, Dickson, Dobson, Faison, Hall, Harris, of Franklin, Lane, Morehead, Pitchford, Rogers, Speight, Street, Stowe, Taylor, of Granville, Taylor, of Brunswick, Thomas, of Davidson, Whitaker and Winston—21.

Those who voted in the negative, are: Messrs. Blount, Dockery, Dowd, Eure, Outlaw, Ramsey, Sharke, Taylor, of Nash, Turner, Walkup, Whedbee, and Worth—13.

We recommend to these hopeful young gentlemen to study the antecedents of these Senators—both yeas and nays—and then place their hands on their youthful and honest hearts—and say on which side voted the secessionists, and on which side the Union men of that day. If their memories do not extend so far in the past, let them place themselves at the feet of their Gamaliel and learn the facts. And then, let them act fairly and honestly. They will feel better—"Joe" Turner is not a secessionist and never was. Neither has been that old reliable wheelhorse of the Union—Jonathan Worth. If the boys do not know it they have something to learn.

Both of the boys are so awfully distressed by this one equivocal act of Messrs. Turner and Worth, will not their hair stand on end when they read what has been lately published on the other side? Have they read that extract from their own paper of 30th Oct. 1861. "For we had always held that the State had a right to secede for a just cause? Have they learned to spell "F-I-G-H T," as it was spelt by the Standard of June 14th, 1862? Do those "five letters" now as then, contain the only solution of the difficulties which now counselled on Nov. 27, 1850?—Can no State "be forced to remain in" the Union, or "be prevented from going out" as on Dec. 4, 1850? Or will they say, as was said on that day. "If gentlemen do not like the word secede, and if we cannot consent to use the word revolution, let dissolution be the substitute for both?" Do they now say as in Dec. 18, 1850. "Let them refuse, and we DISSOLVE?" If it is their honest opinion now, as in June 18, 1851, that "if preserved at all, ("viz: the Union,") as we pray it may be, STATE RIGHTS must do it?—Is its opinion now, as in Nov. 1, 1850, that "the leaders among our enemies are the meanest and most contemptible creatures upon earth excepting only those in the South that are willing to be governed by them?"

It is to be noticed that these young gentlemen do not allow themselves to cuss. But do they really think, as on July 22, 1861, that "Mr. Everett is the most refined and elegant devil out of perdition. Behold the trio, Andrew Johnson, John C. Breckinridge and Edward Everett."

"Oh for a tongue to curse the slave,
Whose treason like a deadly blight,
Comes o'er the councils of the brave,
To blast them in their hour of might."

Do our young friends feel now like rallying the laggards in war after the following fashion? "Drill them until their legs get limber! stir them up! Blow the fife! Beat the drum! Do something to arouse their latent courage; if they have any. Coax and urge, and drive out all who ought to go."—Standard July 17, 1861.

Good bye to the boys. Only let them ponder these thing's and then say whether Messrs. Turner and Worth are sinners above all others.

R.

Important.

The Standard gives the following important information. We hope the people will be found at the polls:

By reference to the Governor's proclamation and ordinances accompanying, it will be seen that no one is required to show a certificate of the amnesty oath in this election. It is necessary, however, that the oath be taken. Of course the excepted classes are excluded from voting.—Any Justice of the Peace may administer the oath. The attention of all the Inspectors of the Polls is invited especially to the ordinance providing for the election of members of the General Assembly, Governor, and Representatives to Congress. Under the provision of this ordinance Inspectors are directed to examine on oath all challenged voters, touching the question, whether they are duly qualified to vote, by having taken and subscribed the amnesty oath, either of President Johnson or President Lincoln.

Nailed to the Counter.

Not being fully advised of all the facts necessary to a full defence of Mr. Worth against several baseless charges made by the Standard, at our request, he has furnished the following statements, which not only exculpate him from all blame, but give him a still stronger hold upon the confidence and support of the people. If the Standard will just keep on at its present gait, it will give Mr. Worth one of Zeb Vance's majorities. Hear him:

RALEIGH, Oct. 28th, 1865.

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL:—You call my attention to the following charges against me, in the Standard of yesterday:

"Mr. Worth opposes the policy of President Johnson out and out. The President says all officers who took the oath of allegiance to the Confederate States have forfeited their office, but Jonathan Worth did all he could to have every officer in North Carolina continued in office when the war ended, after they had taken the oath to the Confederacy."

2. "President Johnson says the people of North Carolina ought not to be taxed to pay the debt made in aid of the rebellion, but Mr. Worth says they must be."

3. The Standard charges that "a cunning plot has been laid to have the ordinance repudiating the war debt repealed at the next session of the Convention." To account for my wicked participation in this plot, the editors say: "It may be that Mr Worth has more interest in this plot than most people are aware of. It is said that he caused a large amount of old North Carolina bonds belonging to the Sinking Fund of the State to be sold, and the war debt bonds substituted in their place. So if this ordinance is not repealed, the State has lost a large amount of money in her old bonds, under the influence and advice of Mr. Worth in his position as Treasurer of the State The people should not be unmindful of this fact in the plot, that Mr. Worth, by his advice and influence as Treasurer, has sunk the State a very large amount of the old bonds, and will thus ruin his financial reputation, unless he can have the war debt assumed and paid."

The first assertion is untrue. The assertion that I did all I could to have every officer in North Carolina to continue in office when the war ended, has for its foundation Ipresume, the following facts: On the approach of Gen. Sherman's army, I left the Capitol with the State archives, placed under my charge by Gov. Vance. We were at Greensboro' when Gen. Johnston surrendered. It was understood there that Gen. Sherman's plan of re-construction was to use the existing State organization for this purpose.—Gov Vance addressed a letter to Gen. Sherman, proposing, if allowed to return to Raleigh, to call together the General Assembly, and recommend the immediate call of a Convention to restore us to the Union. He read this letter to me, and asked me if I would be the bearer of it to Gen. Sherman. I heartily approved it, and most willingly consented to be the bearer. He procured for me a passport from Gen. Johnston and I started, traveling part of the way by private conveyance, the breaches in the Rail Road not having been repaired. I learned from Gen. Kilpatrick, then stationed at Durham's, that Gen Sherman would leave Raleigh before I could get here. I explained to him the nature of my mission and got Gen. Kilpatrick to send a telegram to Gen. Sherman, asking him to delay his departure till I could reach Raleigh. He replied that he could not wait and referred me to Gen Schofield. On my arrival next the morning, I delivered the Governor's letter to Gen Schofield, who directed me to say to Gov. Vance that it had been settled at Washington that none of the State officers would be recognized. I asked Gen. Schofield if he would allow Gov. Vance to come to Raleigh and hold a personal interview with him. The General decined this, but said he would be in Greensboro' in two or three days, when Gov. Vance could see him I immediately returned to Greensboro' and reported, what I deemed the unfortunate issue of my mission. Gen. Schofield granted me leave to bring back and place in the Capitol the public records &c. in my charge. I surrendered them to the military authorities and retired from my office without a murmur. I have heard of but one man in North Carolina, who objected to this plan. The first thing Gov. Vance and the members of the General Assembly would have had to do, would have been to take the oath to support the constitution of the United States. Not one member would have hesitated to vote for a Convention, which could have been quickly elected and assembled. This Convntion, fresh from the people, could st once have removed Gov. Vance, myself and every other State officer from office, and have elected or provided for the election of others, with such qualifications as the President's policy might have required. This plan, it seems to me, would have been more acceptable to our people, far less expensive to the United States, and so far as I could see, was everyway unobjectionable. It accorded with the views of B. F Moore, Gov. Graham, Wm. Eaton, Gov. Swain and every other prominent man in the State, so far as I have heard, excepting one.

It must be remembered that when I bore this letter from Gov. Vance to Gen. Sherman, neither the Governor, nor I, had heard of President Johnson's plan of re-construction. That plan had to be a uniform one for all the States, and had it been promptly executed, it would have been cordially approved by every body in the State.

Since President Johnson's plan of reconstruction was known, I have uniformly in public and private, spoken of it, in view of the difficulties with which he was surrounded, as sagacious, magnanimous and generous, instead of being opposed to it "out and out."

And now as to the cunning plot. I never heard of any man in the State suggesting a repeal of the repudiating ordinance. It was passed, because it was understood as being required as a condition precedent to our re-admission into the Union. To repeal it at the next session of the Convention would be a fraud on the government of the United States, and consequently disgraceful to North Carolina. The assertion that I am a party to any such plot is a baseless untruth, and I believe it is equally untrue of every member of the Convention. The War debt of the State I now regard as a dead issue, and the discussion of the expediency of the ordinance a useless consumption of time.

The charge in reference to the Sinking Fund, you have fully and truthfully met in yesterday's issue.

Now, as to my position on the war debt:

In my report to the Governor, which he sent in to the Convention, not only without dissent, but with expressions of approbation, I say that I see no reason why the Convention should take any action as to the State debt at that session, and that "for this reason, as well as the fact that I have not yet arrived at any satisfactory conclusions. I abstain, at present, from submitting any recommendations."

The Standard, it is well known, took the same position. I agreed entirely with the Governor and the Standard. Besides, the Governor received from Dr Powell, of Washington city, a few days before the meeting of the Convention, a long epistle purporting to detail at great length a separate conversation with each of the cabinet officers of President Johnson, in which each of them (excepting the Secretary of War who declined to give him any opinion) expressed his decided conviction that the Convention ought not to act on the State debt question This was circulated among, and read by many members of the Convention. Up to this time I was not a candidate for Governor, and there was a most harmonious concord of opinion on this subject, between the Governor, the Standard and myself, endorsed by the President's cabinet, excepting Secretary Stanton, who refused to give the Doctor his opinion. But on the last day of the session the Governor sent in a telegram from the President requiring the repudiation of the war debt The Convention rescinded their resolution to adjourn and repudiated it it is now a dead question. Let it sleep.

I take no notice of the contemptible pretext that I have changed my life long, Henry Clay National Union principles, to get the votes of those who advocated secession If they choose to vote for me, as against my present competitor, they do so out of respect to my uniform consistency and in this view I shall be honored by their support. JONATHAN WORTH.

For the Sentinel.

"Vote for William W. Holden and GO IN THE UNION or for Jonathan Worth and STAY OUT." Standard.

It is disgusting to Northern men sojourning in North Carolina, that so silly an argument dare to be thrown out in the columns of a newspaper edited under the immediate control and revision of the Provisional and would be elected Governor To natives this must be harder to bear

If there is a man in North Carolina who believes for one moment that the election of Mr. Holden and the defeat of Mr Worth are the conditions necessary and precedent to the re-admission of the State into the Union—by all means let him vote for the former,—if he has not self respect and pluck enough to do otherwise. It is to be hoped however that the sparseness of such voters in the coming election will show to the world that such cowards are rare in the old North State. A Northerner and a Union Officer for 3 years,—since a resident sufficiently long to entitle him to a vote has said to the writer—"I might have voted for Holden, but I cant vote for an advocate of 'the baby act.'" "I shall vote for Mr. Worth." It is believed even by Northerners that President Johnson is not infallable; the first evidence of which, in his new position was the appointment of a man who said "It was morally and physically impossible for me to do otherwise than to sign the ordinance of secession." True for him, but not for any man whose honor is dearer than life.

The writer of this article has been a soldier for the Union through the war, and has shed his blood for what he believed was the right; but, upon principle, could not vote for a man who had not moral courage sufficient to refuse to place his name to an ordinance which Gov Holden implies he thought at the time was wrong.

The Northerners hear stories of Mr Holden's preserving the pen with which he signed the secession ordinance. Æsop is full of fables of animals "of the baser sort" which got their fellows in traps to forsake them and "agree with their adversary quickly."

The country North and South has been cursed too long by such demagogues. Any brave and honest man would prefer to vote for a candidate of some pluck and political principle, though he may have been sincerely, the most bitter disunionist

Let the people of North Carolina repudiate demagogues by voting against W. W. Holden for Governor. NEW YORKER.

A Case in Point.

Some fifty-three or fifty four members of the North Carolina State Convention chose to take upon themselves the duty of bringing out Mr. Holden as a candidate for Governor.

Not long since the State Convention of Mississippi nominated a candidate for Governor. Mr. Fisher; and an independent candidate, General Humphreys is elected by a large majority over the Convention's candidate. It is very evident from this that the people of Mississippi did not send delegates to the convention to nominate a governor for them. Neither did the people of North Carolina. The people of Mississippi knew how to rebuke such interference. The people of North Carolina will show at the proper time that they knew what is due to their own self-respect. They will know how to choose a governor of their own selection.—Wil. Journal.

THE GUARDIAN ANGEL.

Thy shining face I cannot see,
Though thou art to me so near;
Though thy sigh the zephyr be,
That cries my cheek from falling tear.

Oftimes I turn at warb'd song
That comes from sweetest linnet's throat;
Bethinking it must sure be ong
To guardian angel a tender note.

But yet I see no shining face,
And yet I know thou'rt surely nigh;
Thou first est a this earthly space,
As much as t at of yonder sky.

Thy shining face I cannot see;
Cannot behold thy ovey form;
And yet I now thou art to me
On errand sent to shield from harm.

Then tho' I cannot see thy smile;
Cannot catch thy radiant eye;
Yet will I love thee all the while,
And heave in turn the loving sigh.

So when I see the Doom of Fate.
Come darking o er my stormy sea;
Oh guardian angel be not ate,
But press m pa id cheek to thee!

[BY AUTHORITY.]

Ordinances and Resolutions passed by the North Carolina State Convention, First Session 1865.

AN ORDINANCE

To organize a temporary force for the preservation of law and order:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the sheriffs appointed under the provisional government, shall as soon as practicable, summons the Justices of the Peace as appointed by the Provisional overnor for their respective Counties, to meet at the Court Houses of their several Counties on a day certain; and a majority, or such number of said Justices as shall be assembled, shall have power, and they are hereby authorized to enrol and organize as many military companies as auxiliaries to the County police as they in their discretion may deem necessary for the preservation of law and order, under the following rules and regulations: The said Justices shall enrol all or any portion of the free white male residents between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, and if necessary extend the enrolment to forty-five years. They shall appoint or direct the election of all necessary officers. They shall prescribe the duties, police or otherwise, to be discharged by said forces. They shall make such exemptions as they may deem proper. They shall have power to enforce all their orders, by the infliction of such pains and penalties as they may consider just and proper. And in case of any serious disturbance or out break, the said forces shall be deemed auxiliary to the County police, and shall be subject to the same orders. And the said Justices from time to time shal have power, and they are hereby authorized to adopt all such measures as they may consider necessary to render said forces efficient for the purposes herein set forth.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall continue in force until the organization of the militia, or until modified or repealed by the General Assembly

Be it further ordained. That the Clerk of the Convention transmit a copy of this ordinance to each sheriff and County Court Clerk within the State, immediately after the ratification of the same.

[Ratified in Convention, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

E. G. READE. President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To give publicity to the Ordinance ordering Elections on the 2nd Thursday in November next:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby, ordained, That the Provisional Governor be empowered and requested to take such steps as in his judgement may be necessary to make known to the people of North Carolina the ordinances ordering elections, on the 2nd Thursday of November, 1865. Read three times, and Ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D., 1865]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS

Calling on the Governor for copies of certain acts of the General Assembly passed in secret session:

Resolved, That the Governion lay before the Convention the Acts of the General Assembly, passed in secret session under which were issued certain bonds in England called Rosin and Cotton bonds of the State.

[Ratified in Convention this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

RESOLUTION.

Asking for the removal of the colored troops from North Carolina:

Resolved, That the President of this Convention, in behalf of this body, request the President of the United States, if not incompatible with the public interest, to order the removal from the State of North Carolina, at the earliest practicable period, of all the colored troops, now in the service of the United States, within the limits of said State; as the presence of these troops is, in the opinion of the Convention, very injurious to the colored people, and excessively annoying to the white people of this State

[Ratified in Convention, this seventeenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

FOR CONGRESS.

COL. JAMES R. LOVE.

WE are authorized to announce Col. JAMES R. LOVE of Jackson County, as a Conservative—National Union Candidate for a seat in the House of Representives of the United States, in the 7th, Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancy, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay.

Oct. 25 1865.

TO THE VOTERS

Of the Fourth Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Orange Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnson and Nash:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress, cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are vain and unnecessary There is one question however, which seems to be agitating to some extent the minds of the people both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored fellow citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests,—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights both of person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
A. H. ARRINGTON.

SALE OF VALUABLE PROPERTY.

ON TUESDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF NOVEMBER next I will sell to the highest bidder, (on the premises,) M J Lewis' Dunn Plantation, containing seven hundred and eighty acres of valuable Pine Swamp Land. One hundred acres of the latter is well drained and in a fine state of cultivation. This Farm is situated on the Raleigh and Lousburg Road, 18 miles from the former and 13 from the latter place. Purchasers seldom meet with such inducements as are here offered. Pine timber can be delivered on the R. & G. R. R. 7 miles from the premises. Also the crop of Corn and Fodder, Horses, Mules, Hogs and Cattle, consisting of Beeves, Milch Cows, and Work Oxen. Dump and Ox Carts, Wagons and other Agricultural Implements too tedious to mention. Terms made known on the day of sale.

J. ROST. JEFFREYS,
Agent for Maj. A. M. Lewis.
Oct. 23 66-2w.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	$320,000
" " Allowed Losses,	10,000
" Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SELBY, Pres't.
